

JASON MORSE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Those that were lucky enough to cross paths with Jason knew how fun-loving, witty, compassionate, welcoming and generous he was. He enjoyed working with the Gull Lake band, whether it was hauling trailers of equipment, set-up for half-time shows, passing out water or providing a distinct loud cheer for all to hear, he was always happy to give his time. Jason exemplified what it means to be a loving, supportive husband and father putting his family before all and ensuring his attendance at every event giving back to the community he loved so dearly. Jason was a father of two Gull Lake High School Band members and had a great love of music. He also had a strong desire for the academic success of his children. In 2017, in Jason's memory, his family started the Jason Morse Memorial Scholarship.
