

PELLETIER SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established in 2012 to honor Mrs. Phyllis Pelletier's dedication and commitment to education. Mrs. Pelletier was a member of the Gull Lake faculty from 1980 to 2013 where she predominantly taught history along with coaching track and field. She retired in 2010 only to come back the following year and teach AP US History part time in the mornings. During her tenure, she has touched the lives of hundreds of students preparing them for the AP exams and life beyond. At her request, this scholarship will recognize an extraordinary graduating student pursuing study in the liberal arts or social sciences.
